Sew-cial Event FAQ's

What should I expect? Expect to have a great time! We are so excited to do this with you!

What's a Sew-cial? Our Sew-cial event is another term for a sewing retreat! We come together to sew, socialize, get inspired, and work on our own projects.

Who can attend? We encourage everyone from confident beginners to seasoned sewers to attend the event!

What will we be doing? Sewing of course! We will also have demonstrations, trunk shows, giveaways, show and tell! In addition, you will have the opportunity to view and purchase NEW fabric collections before we make them available in the shop! You will be at your own station, working at your own pace, and working on the project(s) you bring.

Where is the Sew-cial? Township of Indiana Community Center (2.7 miles 6 mins from TQN) 3710 Saxonburg Boulevard Pittsburgh, PA 15238

Are there any overnight accommodations? At this time, it is up to the guests to secure their own Friday evening accommodations if needed. We have information of a few hotels less than 15 minutes from the retreat location. Details on our Event Info page.

Is there food? Friday evening we are encouraging a Pot Luck style kick off, there will be a salad bar offered at dinner. Saturday lunch will be provided. Water will be available, but you are welcome to bring your own drinks and snacks if you prefer. Alcohol is not permitted at this event.

Can I rent a machine? Although we usually offer the option to use a machine for a class, we encourage that you bring your own machine for the retreat.

Will you secure our belongings? Yes, of course! The room will be securely locked at 9pm on the Friday of the event and will be unlocked at 9am Saturday morning of the event.

There will be at least three community cutting stations, ironing stations and project walls for any of the event guests to use during the event. Please be mindful that these areas and items are to be shared with ALL sew-cial guests who attend.

Cancellation Policy— Any cancellations made within 30 days of the retreat will not be eligible for refund.
